

INSTALLATION GUIDE, TIPS & LEGAL DISCLAIMER

---

THANK YOU FOR DOWNLOADING FROM LUT DEPOT

Your LUTs are crafted with precision and designed to recreate the cinematic tones, moods, and palettes inspired by iconic films, TV shows, and genres. These LUTs are not official color transforms but original creative interpretations by LUT DEPOT.

HOW TO INSTALL — DAVINCI RESOLVE

1. Go to DaVinci Resolve > Preferences > Color Management.
2. Click "Open LUT Folder."
3. Copy your .cube LUT files into the folder.
4. Click "Update Lists."
5. Apply LUT on a node under Color Page > 3D LUT.

HOW TO INSTALL — ADOBE PREMIERE PRO

1. Open Lumetri Color panel.
2. Under "Input LUT," choose "Browse."
3. Select your LUT.
4. Or install permanently into Adobe/Common/LUTs/Creative.

HOW TO INSTALL — FINAL CUT PRO

1. Add "Custom LUT" from Effects.
2. In the inspector, choose your .cube file.
3. Adjust Mix slider.

HOW TO INSTALL — LUMAFUSION / MOBILE EDITORS

Import LUT using "Import Preset" or "Lookup Table" from Files app.

HOW TO ADJUST LUT INTENSITY (IMPORTANT)

LUTs are powerful tools — sometimes too powerful if applied at 100%. If the image looks too contrasty, too colorful, or too stylized, simply reduce intensity.

Resolve: Lower the Key Output Gain on the LUT node (start at 0.5).

Premiere: Use the "Intensity" slider under Creative (50–70% is ideal). Final Cut: Adjust the "Mix" slider (try 30–60%).

Mobile: Lower LUT Strength or Opacity.

PRO TIP: Many filmmakers stack LUTs lightly — using 20–40% strength to create a base tone, then grading on top.

COLOR GRADING TIPS FOR BEST RESULTS

- Expose properly — LUTs work best on well-exposed footage.
- Convert LOG correctly first (S-Log3, HLG, V-Log). Apply Rec.709 transform before LUTs unless LUT Depot notes otherwise.
- White balance your shot before applying the LUT.
- Adjust contrast — small tweaks make LUTs look exactly like the reference film style.
- Use noise reduction on higher ISOs for cleaner cinematic images.
